Program Summary

The AmeriCorps Partners in Learning program will have AmeriCorps members tutor struggling readers one-on-one or in small groups in the Dubuque Community School District's elementary schools and summer programs. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for increasing the reading scores of 810 economically disadvantaged students. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 300 volunteers who will be engaged in Dubuque community days of service. The program will focus on the CNCS focus area of Education.
